

- The Leadership Policy Branch is the proponent for the Army Values posters, but is not the distribution point for the posters. The following information is provided for those who wish to acquire the posters.
 - Publications distribution of the posters is ongoing, and some units may not have received their copies. High and low resolution versions of the 16x20 and 18x24 posters are available for download at: <http://www.armyg1.army.mil/hr/armyValues.asp>, or users can go to the link: View detailed low resolution and high resolution posters to download and save the posters. Scroll down the page for links to the low resolution 16x20 and 18x24 posters; high resolution links are further down the page.
 - To order the posters, go through your organization or installation publications control officer (PCO) or whoever supplies the unit with publications. Units unable to determine the identity of the PCO should contact HQDA for assistance. Recruiting or ROTC organizations should contact the supporting installation publications office to order the posters.
 - Units that have established publications accounts may order the posters directly from the U.S. Army Publications Agency (USAPA) at: <http://www.usapa.army.mil/>. Poster numbers and IDN numbers are: DA Poster 360-212 (16x20), IDN 049180; DA Poster 360-212-1 (18x24), IDN 049179. The website also has customer service numbers that may be of assistance. Units without accounts may establish an account on the USAPA website. In the top menu, go to "Orders/Subscriptions/Reports" and then to "establish an account".
 - ARNG units should check with their state AG to determine the existence of a PCO, or with the organization that supplies publications to the unit.
 - For purchases of the poster: They are not yet available through the GPO Bookstore, but users may contact the bookstore at: <http://bookstore.gpo.gov/>) and express interest in purchasing the posters. The bookstore may add the posters to their inventory if there is enough interest in purchasing them.
- Check back periodically for updates to this information.
